Student Responsibilities

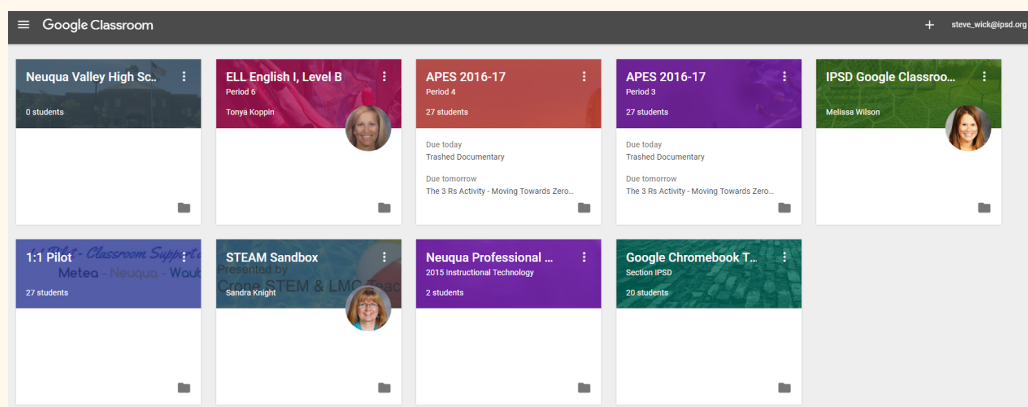

Virtual instruction will be asynchronous this year for students who are quarantined. There will be NO LIVE INSTRUCTION from teachers during class time.

Students will be using Google classroom to complete classwork.

Google Classroom

Log in using your username and password. Your username is your first name, period, then last name. Your password is an adjective (first letter capitalized), animal (first letter capitalized), and three numbers. See the example below:

Username: firstname.lastname@burrell.k12.pa.us Password: AdjectiveAnimal000	EXAMPLE USERNAME: john.smith@burrell.k12.pa.us EXAMPLE PASSWORD: LazyGecko123

Teachers will be posting work to Google classroom daily. Click on your class in Google classroom, then “classwork.” You can also check to see what needs completed from the “To Do” list in Google classroom.

If you have a question about an assignment, you can comment on the assignment or email the teacher. If you do not hear back from the teacher for 24 hours, email Gannon Warrick (contact information is above).

How To Email Your Teacher

Go to your Gmail (www.gmail.com), making sure you are logged into your Burrell account. Click “Compose.” Start to type in your teacher’s last name. Your teacher’s name will automatically populate into the “To:” section of the email. See example below:
