

Gregory Egnor became the principal of Stewart Elementary in the summer of 2011. Prior to that, he was the principal of Bon Air elementary school. Additionally, he is the director of special education for the district. Before his administrative experience, he was an elementary teacher in the Woodland Hills School District.

Dr. Egnor earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Richard Stockton University in 1991. In 2001, he completed his Masters of Education in Elementary Education from the University of Pittsburgh. He earned K-12 principal certification in 2006 at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He completed a Doctorate in School Leadership and Administration from IUP in the spring of 2013.