

Mrs. Autumn Turk joined Burrell District as the assistant principal at Charles A. Huston Middle School in September of 2016. Prior to joining the team at HMS, she was an assistant principal at Eden Hall Upper Elementary, Pine-Richland School District. Mrs. Turk also taught first grade at Highlands School District and was an academic intervention specialist for Burrell School District.

Mrs. Turk has earned a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education and Special Education from Clarion University of Pennsylvania and a Master of Education in School Leadership from the University of Pittsburgh. She holds Pennsylvania certifications in the areas of Elementary Education K-8, Special Education N-12, Principal K-12, and Supervisor of Curriculum and Instruction. Mrs. Turk is currently working towards an Educational Doctorate degree in Interdisciplinary Leadership at Creighton University.

Mrs. Turk and her family currently reside in Lower Burrell, and her three daughters attend school within Burrell School District.

“Burrell School District is the perfect fit for our family. We appreciate the close-knit and supportive community, coupled with dedicated teachers, students, families, and administration” said Mrs. Turk. “I am proud to be a member of an administrative team that is dedicated to creating a collaborative culture in which student learning and growth is our focus. I look forward to partnering with you so that together, we may empower students to Learn, Create, Lead, & Succeed!”
